Isis

Introduction

These last several years I have been connected to, if I may use this word, the Great Goddess of ancient Egypt, Isis. During that time, I learned several healing methods in the temples of Light, in her company as well as in the company of different gods and goddesses who have incarnated on Earth several thousand years ago.

Last year I went to the Philae temple and had an energetic experience I am not ready to forget. More than a year has passed since and I am on the verge of my next visit to the temple, temple that talks to me, that cheers me up and makes me experience so many extraordinary things. I was asked to perform a live initiation directly from Philae on 21st September 2007. The sum of the numbers results in the number 3: it represents the power of the holy Trinity, the power of the Three. During all these years of service to the Source, I had the opportunity to ascertain the vibratory power of what was demanded by the higher celestial planes.

You will be able to experience an initiation such as they were performed when gods and goddesses were incarnated on Earth. Those of you who will receive the call will have no doubt, it will be very clear to them that they want to receive and particularly to relive these divine moments in conscience. Many of you already walked the Sacred Lands; be assured that your Divine DNA possesses all the codes of Pure Love, of Gratitude, of the Realization, of the Absolute and during this initiation these codes will appear anew. It will bring to your conscious awareness all the wrong beliefs that are still active in you, all the people who crossed your road in order for you to live the karma, all the experiences you have not yet forgiven.

Your physical body will rapidly react to anything discordant with your Absolute Divine. You will less and less be able to lie to yourself because you all chose to become righteous; to get there, you will have to face all the lacks of love towards yourselves. The power of your spoken Word will be amplified to its maximum, this means that things are going to evolve very quickly, very quickly indeed. You all chose to be realized in purest Love and to do this, you will have to cross the Light Bridge for you to be permanently connected to your Divine Being. It's up to you to pursue your path, you won't be allowed to walk the path of fright, you will quickly be able to detect the latter thanks to the new codifications on your Divine DNA level. It will happen easily. Allow yourselves to carry Divine Perfection into action.

Goddess Isis

Let me start with introducing the Great Goddess of Ancient Egypt. To do this I am asking her to impart the righteousness of things, so many stories were told on her behalf that it has become a bit discordant.

Hallo to all of you,

I salute Divinity within each of you.

I bow before the Divine Being in you, do receive the Divine Mother's power of Love this very moment.

For you to understand who I was and who I am now, it is important that the memory that lies dormant within you be reactivated. I therefore invite you to ask my precious collaborator (Thot) to realign the power of multidimensionality within yourselves now. It will enable you to be transported to the Temple of Philae while remaining in your physical body.

Prior to our coming on Earth we were reunited in another dimension of your solar system. We received different initiations, teachings and restructurations of our molecular system in order to adjust easily to our arrival on earthly planes. We knew that our journey among the human beings would have a very great impact on earth's inhabitants. We were gifted with the divine seed, enabling us to create all we needed for the realization of our Divine plan.

My part was a bit unusual, I used to carry and nurture the Souls with the Divine Mother's Love, this way enabling them to develop a dimension within them that remained untouched to this day. Through the Power of Spoken Word I was able to manifest in matter everything we needed in order to rebuild a world of Love and Freedom. We were several to walk the Sacred Lands, each of us with a specific task; we were all of the same origin. During several years I taught healing methods such as spontaneous healing to many of you.

Some were very gifted and demonstrated a determination that was truly impressive. I also taught the method of Sacred Breath that restores life to every cell in the physical body. Many of you wanted to become to our likeness, and for some time it enabled you to go beyond your limits, for these limits be abolished.

My main task, as I already mentioned, was to spread the Divine Mother's Love. Through this Love, the humans started again to walk the road of their life's realization while being aware that all their thoughts could be manifested in matter. For a very long time, patience, perseverance, realization of the absolute was the one and only aim we wished to attain, but it took years and years. Since being at the beginning of a new era, we had to put everything in place for humanization to be rightly and totally transformed in all the Being's dimensions.

I used all of nature's forces and powers in order to accomplish what we had come to realize. In accordance with the Source, for a long time I have also been preparing elixirs to restore youth to the physical body. In these ancient times, the people were living to become 400, but looked like 40; you understand, everything was magical. We started transmitting our knowledge to children in their first years so that the human being had enough time to reach complete realization.

There existed different realms, like today in this messianic era, and all these realms helped educate the human brain. Through the means of speech I was transmitting vibrations from the Source, with the effect to recode the Divine DNA. Those who had reached this level of evolution were able to better understand the thought scheme, to perceive the effect of every thought crossing their mind on their physical body. They were living for months, sometimes for years in these temples, developing their perception through thoughts that I transmitted to them.

Time was not calculated the way it is today, in these ancient times it did not have the same impact since we never had the obligation to work contrarily to the way you perceive it today. Everything consisted in developing physical and psychic capacities. I also had the power of laughter, of enjoyment; in these times we enjoyed watching a rosebud unfold, we filled it with our love for it to become perfect. We supplied the rivers with our vibrations, so they would be of different colors and able to emanate different sounds, since all that existed was vibratory, and the sounds they sent back to us were very beneficial to body and Soul.

I became the one to consult when there was lack of Love towards the human body, my sole presence could bring about spontaneous healing. Since everything was manifested instantly, it wasn't long before I was recognized as having been chosen by God (The Source) to represent Infinite Love. This Earth incarnation was a great experience in Love Realization.

Today I am traveling on emerald earth; I teach or, I should say, do whatever is necessary for some of you to reactivate the memory of that incarnation. In these ancient times, nobody conscious of his power to heal would destroy his Being. Everybody was trying to become a mirror of the Absolute I was representing.

I am coming before you today because it is time for you to reactivate this memory. It will enable you to remember and also to use all knowledge acquired during that incarnation. Some will start to hear again the sparkling of running water; others will develop their capacity to travel instantly from one realm to the other in search of memory parts useful to their realization. Others will be able to develop a 360° vision. Others still will transmit instant healing to a great many around them.

To let everything rise to your conscious awareness, it is necessary to take the time to get comfortably seated in a quiet place, to connect with me while reading this document. You will be able to sense inside you the feeling of a vibration tasting of the fruit. It will be new for some, it will bring understanding to others, and to others it will bring back the memories of a feeling they had experienced before without recognizing the vibration.

To make preparedness easier for you, align yourself with your soul; ask to be allowed to find the space within you that brings calm and fullness to your being. Do not be surprised if you become aware of Light Beings' presence, the former guides of ancient times will be at your side. They all are ready to appear within your sacred space. They will bring several elements that will reveal what you are about to receive.

You will be given certain directions, so be attentive and dare to do what they suggest, it will have a very considerable impact on your physical body as well as on your thought system. This preparation is of great importance. Their presence will also bring you consolation of the heart since everything unknown to your conscious conscience makes you often react with fear, but the time of Love has begun, it will persist in future.

I would also like to inform you of less pleasant things that are bound to happen. First let me address those of you who still haven't grasped the importance of liberating the chakra of the power of Spoken Word. You might experience heartaches because your emotional body must recover its full radiating capacity.

In order to do this, all unspoken words need to be ejected from that chakra. I suggest you act as of now. Dare to assert yourselves, dare to express your heart's feelings. All the things you dared not say to those who left earth... open your heart and speak up to all of them; they are waiting for you to do so. They will be present at our meeting since it will help them climb another step on the ladder of evolution.

Some might experience a vibratory sensation around the ears, it might not be very comfortable but it will stop eventually. You will often be transported to different celestial planes during sleep; this could bring lighter sleep depth. You might experience some momentary pain in your bones, but don't worry, we shall extract these memories from your bones, but sometimes this is done a bit harshly. It will last for a few days only. On the other hand, others may not experience anything unpleasant, the task of liberation having already been completed. As you can see, it is important to prepare yourself well for this initiation that I shall perform myself through the one who is transmitting these scriptures.

Now you know how to prepare yourself prior to experiencing this very special initiation; I would also like to explain the reasons for my intervening on earth plane. What I used to be a long time ago was put to sleep, because too many people failed to attain the conscience of absoluteness and there was a time when humans chose to experience duality, so everything toppled over into Non-Love.

There was man's evolution and involution... this was described in several of your books. It caused so many destructions, reason why everything had to be started anew. The power of manipulation became part of man's conscience and was experienced at its maximum during several incarnations. You must understand that you were these men and women, not what you are today, but you have been part of people of power who manipulated others,.

All of us had chosen to let humans make these experiences, our intervention would only have emphasized the urge to possess even more, so we waited for the collective consciousness to be transformed. Today, enough men and women have been able to reactivate the memory of a world of Love, so we can come back to accomplish what we came to accomplish so long ago. For many years now, several transmitters announced lots of changes.

You will recognize within you the disclosed call. All of you received a sign that you are an integral part of the plan that will accomplish Divine Love on Earth and soon you will realize that it was a momentum of the heart. Now the time has come to explain what will happen after your initiation. To start with, you will more and more be called to transmit messages of love and peace.

The way you used to express yourself, stepping back for fear of not being heard, came from your innermost. The vibration emitted from the center of the power of Spoken Word will modify it, and because the words will have a righteous resonance, it will touch people differently.

You will be numerous to start a new kind of teaching; you will be taught by your guides and by certain Light Beings directly, they will come into resonance with your highest vibratory plane. These teachings will enable you to get an even more intense accrediting. Not only shall you accomplish your divine plan, but also some people having received the message to meet you will be directed to you without you having to prove yourself.

Changes will also happen with regard to your food; these will happen without any effort from you, because you will not be able any more to ingest certain substances that could alter the right functioning of your earth vehicle. Some liquids contain destructive substances, but your mouth will rapidly detect it. You will tend to choose less chemical, more organic foods. You will learn to recode water, so that it will nourish your system with everything you need to keep the right proportion of liquids in your physical body.

You will be given the possibility to make food taste the way you like. Yes, you heard what you heard; the power of thought will manifest itself in big. For those who lack sugar for instance, this way of functioning will please your palate without spoiling your physical body, enabling it to remain perfectly healthy. I can already see a smile on the faces of some who will read this.

Now let me explain in more details what is happening in the cells of your physical body when you choose to activate the vibration of absolute realization.

Depending on where it is situated in the human body, every cell, examined under a microscope, possesses almost the same symbolization. Through activation, the symbolization will be transformed. The more this symbol becomes visible, the more your physical body rejuvenates; it rejuvenates at such speed that your scientifics will be flabbergasted when they see the cells. The physical body was created to have a much longer life span than you can imagine. Originally, it used to be regenerated by the Love of the Creator you all carry inside.

As mankind let the Flame of Divine Love gradually die, the body started to degenerate and finally went totally to sleep; the same word used to define the body's state of death. There are some places on Emerald Earth where life lasts several hundred years. These beings chose to live in inner-earth cities where they can experience total freedom. They eat healthy food, drink pure water and have a very young body. They are a nation; they chose to find realization in Divine Love.

Your will have lots of questions with regard to these peoples. Through the vibration of accomplishment of the absolute in you, you will be able to establish contact with them. Each and every one of their breaths is used in conscience to nourish their heart, body, Soul and Spirit. They really represent the purity that God wished for all of his children. In a few years from now you will hear more and more about these accomplished Beings. Their smile is radiant, their skin is of the greatest sweetness and it tastes is of exotic fruit. These people are the only example of an Absolute Being. Numerous persons live with the illusion that they are totally realized. This mirage quickly vanishes by getting one glimpse only of these Beings. Let me give you some more information about them.

Like me they are able to manifest in matter everything they need to cover their needs. They created rivers as well as very large lakes. Every evening they watch the sunset and express their thanks to God for His infinite kindness. Lots of vibratory temples are also to their disposal. If they were to appear before you, you would recognize them.

It is thanks to these people that were able to come back to you. Through their Love they nourish the Eglogore of humankind's realization. They are quite numerous to do so. You started to awaken without even realizing it and now, you are actually waking up!

Isn't it gorgeous, the veils are lifting up and comprehension is becoming part of your conscious awareness? Since the day we left your earthly plane, the memory of it subsided in several of you. Many of you are wishing for the day to come, when you will walk again on the Sacred Lands of Ancient Egypt. We shall always be present to welcome you there because we are multidimensional Beings.

Several temples were built in honor of me. Some were built out of Love and still carry my vibrations. The temples that were built for and by power are carrying very heavy vibrations. The temple I cherished and inhabited lies in Philae. I loved every moment spent there and have given thanks for all that Love, so Pure and so Big.

Filled with the Love of the Divine Mother, the Love she insufflates into every child, the life breath, I shall come to you to perform this initiation that will be held in Philae in Egypt. I invite you to share everything you will experience during these 333 minutes in my company with her who will be my intermediary.

While writing this text, she was informed she would spend 5 hours 33 minutes in this temple, temple she cherished during her last visit and filled with the Love she carries. Several Gods and Goddesses of Ancient Egypt incarnated on Earth will be present and will assist her with the full power of love she will need in order to accomplish what I asked her to accomplish for me.

You will be numerous to receive the call.

In conclusion of this sharing of Love, I wish every inhabitant of Emerald Earth to receive in all conscience the sacred initiation to the Realization of Being's Absolute

With all my Love!

Isis
